

October 4, 2011

MEDIA ALERT

Live-changing Discoveries about Autism Spectrum Disorder Presented by Award Winning Dr. Vicki Bitsika and Bond's Centre of Autism Spectrum Disorder

Director of the Bond's Centre of Autism Spectrum Disorder (CASD) Dr. Vicki Bitsika will share new findings of the centre's research and important treatment methods for autism disorder.

The current research focuses on pattern of school children with an autism disorder, support for families and techniques to manage challenging behavior of children with an autism condition.

Who: The event is organized by the Centre of Autism Spectrum Disorder, that is represented by the Director of the CASD Dr. Vicki Bitsika and the host of this presentation is Bond University.

When: Friday, October 21, 2011
5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Where: Cerum Theatre, Bond University, University Drive (off Cottesloe Drive), Robina QLD 4229

The Cerum Theatre is located on the second level of the University Centre - Building 6 on attached campus map. Parking option is the general parking area – PG3 on campus map. From general parking area PG3 walk along the pathway straight up the hill, at the first cross make a right turn and follow the signs straight to the Cerum Theatre which will be on your left.

Who should attend: the media, specialists in the field of autism, people who work with children affected with autism, families of children with autism, and anybody who is interested in autism

###

PR Contact details: Christina Wieselthaler
christina.wieselthaler@student.bond.edu.au
(04) 6832 4104